

MRS. ELMER E. BARNARD.

of Lynchburg, formerly of Knoxville, Tenn., who is said to be one of the most beautiful young matrons in Virginia. While a resident of Knoxville Mrs. Barnard posed for a number of paintings, one of which, "The Virginian," is now on exhibition in various art stores.

Old Point Social.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
OLD POINT COMFORT, Va., March 30.—The glorious spring weather has added to the attractiveness of the Easter season at Old Point, and it is one of the busiest in years. The hotels are thronged with guests who find amusement for every hour of the day. Out of doors there is golf and tennis, and inside bridge swimming, concerts and dancing.

For years the hop on Easter Saturday night has been the most brilliant of the entire year, and the one to-night was no exception. The women wore their handsomest gowns and for partners had army and navy officers, as well as civilians. As it was Holy Week there was no formal entertainment, but next week promises to be feverishly gay.

An interesting engagement, which has just been announced is that of Miss Julia Walke, the daughter of Major William Walke, U. S. A., and Mrs. Walke, of Fort Barrancas, Fla., and St. James Cotton, U. S. A., now stationed at Fort Monroe, will be married. The wedding will be celebrated on the seventeenth of April at Fort Barrancas. Among the guests at Sherwood Inn early in the week was Count von Fotters, a Lieutenant in the Imperial German Army, who is making a tour of the United States. As the guest of the War Department, he made the trip to Havana on the U. S. A. transport Summer, which sailed from Newport News on Monday.

Recent arrivals at the Chamberlin include Mrs. F. H. Wilson, Miss Wilson, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Granville Valentine, Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Harber, New York; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Warren, Hartford, Conn.; Mrs. James Dudley Morgan, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Collins, Philadelphia; Mrs. A. H. Forbes, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Baker, Toronto; Mrs. K. W. Babcock, Edgewood, Ga.; Mrs. Frank C. Coohey, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Church, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Clarke, St. Paul; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wilcox, New York.

SMITHFIELD SOCIAL.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SMITHFIELD, Va., March 30.—Professors Saunders and Downs, of Newport News, gave a most interesting and instructive lecture at the High School Wednesday night. The gentlemen are trying to persuade the School Board of Smithfield to equip the High School with a physical and chemical laboratory.

Mrs. Gale, mother of Mr. W. B. Gale, met with a very serious accident Tuesday afternoon. While standing before a fire a sudden draught of air caused her skirts to be blown into the fire. In a few seconds she was enveloped in flames. Before assistance came she was very badly burned. Her two daughters, who came to her assistance were also very badly burned in trying to extinguish the flames.

Mr. Young Boykin spent several days in Smithfield last week. Samuel Tidwell is visiting friends in Norfolk.

Mr. Frank Batten spent last Saturday and Sunday in Smithfield. The following guests were registered at the Jamestown Hotel during the past week: Mr. E. L. Pollard, Newport News, Va.; Mr. W. Graham, Milford, Va.; Mr. H. W. Coleman, Richmond, Va.; Mr. R. D. Bryant, Petersburg, Va.; Mr. R. J. Charles, Newport News, Va.; Mr. L. B. Reynolds, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. M. L. Leath, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. H. Saunders, Portsmouth, Va.; Mr. H. C. Scapnick, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. D. C. Baker, Surrey, Va.; Miss Warren, Surrey, Va.; Miss Violet Lawson, Richmond, Va.; Mr. J. B. Barker, Ga.

Boykins Social.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BOYKINS, Va., March 30.—Mrs. Ernest DeLoatch, of Severn, N. C., was a guest last week of Mrs. R. M. Knight.

Mr. Ray Francis, of Koskoo, Va., was in Boykins several days ago. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Britt spent Sunday with friends in Severn, N. C.

Miss Ethel Hart, Lina Sue Bryant and Mesdames A. L. Knight and S. J. Myrick visited friends in Newsoms, Va., Friday last.

Mr. J. M. Hill left last Thursday to make his home in Roanoke, Va.

Mrs. S. P. Weston is spending some time in Norfolk, Va.

Mr. Tom Bryant, of Sunbeam, Va., was here Monday.

Miss Ida Stephenson has just returned from Richmond, Va., with a new lot of spring and summer millinery.

LEXINGTON.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LEXINGTON, Va., March 30.—Dr. W. W. Moore delivered Monday night his lecture, "Rabies Along the Nile," in the engineering hall at Washington and Lee University. The lecture was given under the auspices of the Mary Custis Lee Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy. The lecture was freely illustrated by stereoscopic views of the country about which he spoke.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Lohr, of near Lexington, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Blanch May, to Mr. Frank P. Neel, of West Virginia. The marriage is announced to take place Wednesday, April 3rd, at the home of Mrs. H. M. Reedy of near Wesley Chapel, Rockbridge county, sister of the prospective bride.

Captain Hugh Stockell, formerly adjunct professor at the Virginia Military Institute, now Southern representative of a Boston publishing concern, was a visitor in Lexington the past week.

Misses Mary and Sue Davidson left a few days ago for a month's visit to friends in Lynchburg and Richmond.

Mrs. William P. Hall, of Staunton, is visiting Mrs. Thompson R. Southall.
